1. This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail. The applicants are shown as accused in C.R.No.110/2006 registered by the Pen police station for alleged offences under Sections 147, 148, 149, 151, 152, 353, 332, 333, 336, 452, 427 & 120-B of IPC. On perusing the FIR it is clear that the present applicants were leading a morcha which turns violent. One of the applicant by name Ganesh alongwith 2 other persons are said to have pushed the police authority. Some other members of the mob pelted stones and police officers are said to have been injured. APP states that there is no injury certificate on the file. Be that as it may, Bhalchandra Patil had been granted anticipatory bail. In my view, this is a matter where investigation can proceed without the custody of the present applicants. It is therefore, directed that in the event of their arrest in connection with C.R.No.110/2006 registered by the Pen police station, the applicants may be released on bail in the sum of Rs.15,000/- each with one surety each in the like amount subject to the condition that they will report to the investigating officer of Pen police station as and when called upon to do so in writing. Application stands disposed of.
